

ROADHOUSE RECORDS' RECORDING ARTIST "BARBARA KISS" RELEASES NEW MUSIC VIDEO AND SINGLE

Multi talented recording artist, BARBARA KISS, is releasing new artistic music video for heart-wrenching ballad "RUNAWAY" in the following weeks and new single "EVERYTHING" at the same time.

BARBARA KISS has established herself as one of the truly unique pop singers of her country as she is from Hungary. Her incredible upbeat attitude and positive energy combine to make her one of the most sought after performers in the business today.

Besides writing and recording continuously over the last few years, BARBARA also show several music videos and done countless interviews on her journey while performing in Los Angeles, London and one of the biggest festivals in Europe, Sziget Fesztival.

With her soulful and clear vocals, Barbara rarely uses autotune therefor believes in live singing wherever she goes. She performs by herself and also with an acoustic guitar player by her side.

Currently promoting her new single and music video in the US and also in her home country where BARBARA also started performing acoustic sets that feature songs like 'Love on the brain', 'Toxic' and her own material. Her newest EP is expected to be released in the near future.

Photos for Media Use

